OCTOBER MEETING: October 9, 2008 SAVE THE DATE- Schooner Martha Foundation Comes to San Diego AMSS Meeting

MARTHA photo by Michael Berman

Built 1907, Designed by: B.B. Crowninshield of Boston, Built by: W.F. Stone Boat Yard in San Francisco

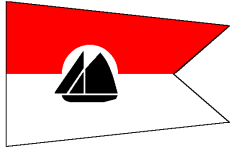

The Schooner Martha Foundation, owner and operator of Martha, invites you to help celebrate her 101st birthday by coming to hear Captain Robert D'Arcy talk about their youth and adult sail training program plus her extensive restoration project. MARTHA sails out of Port Townsend, Washington and more information about their program can be found on their website: www.schoonermartha.org.

This past winter the Schooner Martha Foundation has conducted its most ambitious restoration project to date. Come hear Robert D'Arcy and talk with his family about MARTHA. Please read some of the postings and see photos on the Woodenboat Magazine site woodenboat forum (woodenboat forum), or "google"-woodenboat forum martha- Please see the May/June 2005 Wooden Boat Magazine featuring Martha and her history.

AMSS EXHIBIT ON BOARD THE BERKELEY: AMSS and MARITIME MUSEUM SYNERGY AT FESTIVAL OF SAIL

Thanks to Dave Easter and Greg Stewart for putting a lot of time and energy into the AMSS exhibit at the San Diego Maritime Museum. The exhibit was finished just before the Festival of Sail and it certainly got the attention of the visitors who saw it onboard the BERKELEY! Also, I hope everyone saw the journal of the Maritime Museum's, the MAINS'L HAUL where there was an article about AMSS and the Maritime Museum and Tom Jackson's restoration work on SCAMP. Good job everyone!
