FROM THE HELM

The year is certainly going by fast! We just passed through the month of May with our Luau a great success (but, don't ask the pig!) . . . and now with June here, AMSS is holding its 11th Annual Yesteryear Regatta and third San Diego to Maui Race.

Be sure to attend our meeting on Thursday, and the weekend's festivities. Both Saturday and Sunday will be filled with activity. See you there!

JUNE MEETING

Tom Belair is going to have the girls who make up the crew of his boat put on some Hawaiian dances. He calls them his "dancing girls". Tom will be wearing his official Hawaiian garb. Be sure to come to this meeting as this program will be the OFFICIAL (!) send-off for the Maui race. Chris Frost will furnish slides of the 1981 race, and the trophies will be on display.

Yesteryear Regatta & San Diego to Lahaina Race

The Ancient Mariners Sailing Society is sponsoring our 11th Annual Yesteryear Regatta and 3rd San Diego to Lahaina race on June 8th & 9th. We are expecting 65 classic and traditional sailing vessels for the Regatta, coming from all over Southern California.

In addition, the race to Maui on Saturday will feature 10 sailing vessels all looking forward to an exciting and safe "sleigh-ride" to Lahaina. AMSS is quite fortunate to be able to utilize the fine facilities at San Diego Yacht Club for the skipper's meetings and Saturday nights race festivities.

AMSS is quite proud to have two of our own flag members sailing their classic vessels in the San Diego to Lahaina race. Paul Plotts will skipper his 63' schooner, Dauntless; and Woodson "Woody" Woods will skipper his 56' yawl, Scottish Fantasy II. Both of these boats were designed by John Alden and built at the Dauntless Shipyard in Essex, Conn. within one year of each other. The Dauntless and Scottish Fantasy II, capable and seaworthy, are beautiful yachts and fine representations of traditional sailing vessels. Good luck, Paul and Woody!!

LUAU THANK YOU!

On behalf of the members of the club, I want to express our appreciation to Doug & Mary Anne Graves for all the hard work and expertise they, and they alone exerted to make the Luau the great success that it was.

For anyone who missed out on attending this Luau, it was their loss. Mary Anne did a lot of searching to find just the right caterer for the occasion. (San Diego Caterers). More on that further along. Doug made up a great mast and yard arm, very well guyed to withstand the fresh breeze! The yard arm flew a pair of the AMSS burgees, with the yachting ensign at the center and above. Supported by the mast was a good sized sign, multi-colored with excellent commercial grade quality proclaiming the AMSS Luau. Anyone arriving by car could have no trouble finding the place.

There was plenty of real roasted pig, beer, soft drinks . . . and a real Luau atmosphere complete with leis!! Most of all, it was great fun.

Thank you, Doug and Mary Anne, for a great Luau.
