I hope everyone had a good Christmas and a Happy New Year. As the new year and the new century come in, we all should think what we can do for the A.M.S.S. to improve and revive the enthusiasm for classic boats, and then volunteer to help out.

We had our first board meeting of the new Board of Directors this month. We set the Calendar (please mark your calendars), and assigned people to committees but there is still areas that need volunteer help so if you can please volunteer. Jack Swendsen is our Membership Chairman, Greg Stewart is our new Race Chairman and Patrick Langley is our Cruise Chairman, if you have any suggestion give any of them a call. Janet Callow and Greg Stewart are organizing the Yesteryear Regatta but they need people to help out. Patrick Langley, CF Koehler and Jack Sutphen are running the Classic Boat Festival. They also need volunteers. Nocholas and Claudette are organizing the Kettenburg Regatta; they need help too. The Bylaws Committee consists of Patrick Langley, Peter Hylen and we are looking for one other person. We are also looking for someone to do trophies.

Our next event is the Commodores Cup on January 29, 2000. I certainly hope that every one will come out and sail this race, the first A.M.S.S. race of the new Century. Traditionally this has been our only offshore race. With PACIFICA up North, Deb and I will be sailing more on COMANCHE so I will see you

A.M.S.S. needs your help so please volunteer.
